Answer Key for Class 1 English Question Paper: Greetings

---

Descriptive Questions:

1. Describe how you greet your friends when you meet them. What words do you use?

- When I meet my friends, I usually greet them with a smile and say "Hi" or "Hello." Sometimes I might say "Hey!" if I am really excited to see them. I might also ask, "How are you?" to show that I care about how they are feeling.

2. Why is it important to say "hello" to someone when you see them?

- It is important to say "hello" to someone when we see them because it shows politeness and respect. Greeting someone makes them feel acknowledged and valued. It can brighten their day and make them feel happy.

3. What do you say to someone when you leave your home or a party? Explain why.

- When I leave my home or a party, I usually say "Goodbye" or "See you later." Saying goodbye is important because it shows that I appreciate the time spent with them and that I look forward to seeing them again. It helps to end the meeting on a positive note.

4. Can you name three different ways to greet someone? Describe each.

- a) "Good morning" - This greeting is used in the morning to wish someone a good day.

- b) "Good afternoon" - This is a greeting used in the afternoon, typically after noon until about 5 PM.

- c) "Good evening" - This greeting is used in the evening and is a way to acknowledge someone as the day comes to a close.

5. How do you feel when someone greets you warmly? Describe your feelings.

- When someone greets me warmly, I feel happy and valued. It makes me feel liked and important. A warm greeting can lift my spirit and make me smile, creating a friendly atmosphere.

6. Write about a time when you greeted a new friend. What did you say and how did they respond?

- Once, when I started a new school, I met a new friend on the playground. I approached them and said, "Hi! My name is [Your Name]. What's your name?" They smiled and replied, "I'm [Friend's Name]. Nice to meet you!" We became friends after that.
